

AFGHANISTAN

WOMEN AND JOURNALISM: REPRESENTATION AND PROFESSIONALIZATION OF AFGHAN WOMAN IN LOCAL AND GLOBAL MEDIA

Supervisor	Prof. Marco Lombardi Associate Professor of General Sociology, crisis and risk management
Leading institution	Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore
Country	Afghanistan
Location	Herat
Starting date	March 2010
Duration	12 months
Field of intervention	Education
Direct recipients	25 students of journalism at Herat University (15 women and 10 men) and journalists who work in the local media and collaborate with the Journalism Centre of Italian PRT in Herat.
General goal	Improving the Afghan women condition with a special focus on their activities in media and communications.
Specific goals	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Acquiring technical video and photographic skills</li> <li>- Knowing grammar and syntax in order to tell a story with an efficient narrative strategy</li> <li>- Analyzing the role of Afghan women in local and international media</li> </ul>
Expected outcomes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Realization of a monthly magazine on-line in English</li> <li>- Activation of internships in Italian media and newspapers</li> </ul>
Local partners	Department of Journalism at Herat University PRT of Herat
Italian and international partners	Fondazione Fondiaria SAI Italian Embassy in Kabul Department of Journalism of Herat University (Faculty of Literature and Humanities) Italian PRT of Herat and Ministry of Defence Journalism Centre realized by PRT of Herat