

AFGHANISTAN
THE SCHOOL OF PEACE IN TANGI GHARO

Supervisor	Prof. Marco Lombardi Associate Professor of General Sociology, crisis and risk management
Leading institution	Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore
Funding institution	Lombardy Region General Direction Civil Protection, Prevention and Local Police General Direction Family and Social Solidarity
Province	Kabul
Location	Village of Tangi Gharo
Starting date	July 2009
Duration	36 months
Field of intervention	Social, education
Direct recipients	A. 50 students (women) of the School of Peace for each scholastic year B. 20 teachers of school
Indirect recipients	A. Families and teachers of the students involved in the project B. Afghan educational system
General goal	A. Providing scholarships addressed to the families who support girls in school until the graduation. B. Promoting refresher courses addressed to the teachers and creating a training model to be spread in Afghan schools in cooperation with Ministry of Education
Specific goals	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Promoting the role of woman in the Afghan family as a development factor; - Incentivizing and maintaining the feminine presence in the school supplying food advantages to their families; - Supporting the commitment of the students about the motivation and the study because they can attend the school with continuity and diligence to obtain the degree; - Supplying new skills and instruments for the teaching in a formative context oriented to promote a development perspective of the country shared by the teachers.
Expected outcomes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Supply of 50 scholarship each year for the students of the School of Peace; - Reduction of the number of school dropouts between the girls and the students (women) of the School of Peace;

- Active participation of the families about the promotion of woman as promoter of development;
- Start of a training course for teachers realized by the team of Università Cattolica for one week;
- Systematization of refresher courses and elaboration of a model which could be proposed again in the schools.

Local partners

School of Peace in Tangi Gharo
Ministry of Education Afghanistan

Italian and international partners

Italian Embassy in Kabul
OTAN - ISAF