

ETHIOPIA

Construction and equipment of the lecture hall in the new university campus of the Ethiopian Catholic University Of Saint Thomas Aquinas (ECUSTA)

Supervisor	Prof. Roberto Cauda Director of CeSI Full professor of Infectious diseases
Leading institution	Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore
Funding institution	Fondazione Cariplo
Location	Addis Ababa, Ethiopia
Starting date	May 2015
Duration	12 months
Field of intervention	Structural
Direct recipients	Students and teachers of ECUSTA
Indirect recipients	Families of the students
General goal	Construction and equipment of the building that will host the lecture hall of the school of Health Sciences and the First Aid Station in the new university campus of ECUSTA.
Specific goals	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Supporting the teaching of common subjects for different courses: medicine, medical laboratory technicians and, in the future, nursing and obstetrics - Promoting events and national and international conferences, in particular for the International School of Prenatal Medicine connected with the Campus - Creating a First Aid Station for the students of the Campus and for people who live in the neighborhood of the University
Expected results	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Review of the executive draw and construction management - Construction of the building - Equipment of the lecture hall, with furniture and instruments to facilitate the teaching and the communication
Local partner	Ethiopian Catholic University of St. Thomas Aquinas (ECUSTA)
International partners	Ethiopian Episcopal Conference Archbishopric of Addis Ababa Ethiopian government – Ethiopian Ministry of Education Italian Episcopal Conference Autonomous Region of Trento

